Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.

ADDENDUM REGARDING RENTAL FLOOD DISCLOSURE

USE OF THIS FORM BY PERSONS WHO ARE NOT MEMBERS OF THE TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, INC. IS NOT AUTHORIZED.
©Texas Association of REALTORS®, Inc. 2021.

ADDENDUM TO RESIDENTIAL LEASE CONCERNING THE PROPERTY AT

12345 Sample Street, City, TX 12345

THIS ADDENDUM IS A DISCLOSURE OF LANDLORDS' KNOWLEDGE AS OF THE DATE SIGNED BY THE LANDLORD. IT IS NOT A WARRANTY OF ANY KIND NOR A PREDICTION OF FUTURE EVENTS BY LANDLORD, LANDLORD'S AGENTS, OR ANY OTHER AGENT.

A. 100-YEAR FLOODPLAIN. Landlord  is or  is not aware that the dwelling you are renting is located in a 100-year floodplain. If neither box is checked, you should assume the dwelling is in a 100-year floodplain. Even if the dwelling is not in a 100-year floodplain, the dwelling may still be susceptible to flooding. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) maintains a flood map on its Internet website that is searchable by address, at no cost, to determine if a dwelling is located in a flood hazard area. Most tenant insurance policies do not cover damages or loss incurred in a flood. You should seek insurance coverage that would cover losses caused by a flood.

B. DAMAGE TO A DWELLING DUE TO FLOODING DURING THE LAST FIVE-YEAR PERIOD. Landlord  is or  is not aware that the dwelling you are renting has flooded at least once within the last five years.

*For purposes of this notice:

STONE OAK PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

CONSENT TO PROTEST PROPERTY TAXES

12345 Sample Street, City, TX 12345

Stone Oak offers the option to handle your property tax protests through our management portfolio at a discounted rate. All protest fees are contingent upon you saving money on your tax bill, so if no savings are achieved then there is ZERO cost to you. The billing consists of the vendor charging a 30% contingency of savings, so for example, if the vendor achieves a tax savings of $100.00 their bill would be $30.00 and the remaining savings will be realized via reduction in your tax bill.

We recommend that all clients protest their taxes because the appraisal districts routinely increase valuations with the assumption that only a small portion of the tax base will protest. This results in a steady stream of increasing tax revenue for the county with no actual relationship between the market value and the tax appraisal. Sometimes the value may be lower than market; however, that doesn't mean that no savings can be achieved. Every property is researched prior to filing the protest, but even if the valuation is low or appears correct, the property will still be protested because savings are still a possibility. Contrary to popular belief, the county is NOT ALLOWED to raise your value because you protest, so there is ZERO risk.

We are now partnered with a protest firm that will work with you directly. They will provide a portal with a live link showing you the progress of your account(s), work with you directly during the process or any changes to your account, and will bill you directly via a credit card on file. As long as you remain with Stone Oak, you'll continue to enjoy the discounted rate. If you move to another property management company or if management terminates your account for any reason, your account with the protest firm will revert to their standard fee structure of $30/per property per year plus a 30% contingency fee on any savings unless you cancel services with them prior to the protest being filed and generating billable savings.

The deadline to file a protest is usually mid/late May. Hearings are held throughout the subsequent months until all accounts have gone through the process. Contingency fee payments are charged directly via a credit card on file later in the year (Oct/Nov).

Optional Rent Protection Assurance

Rent Contribution Payments and Eviction Help When Your Tenant Does Not Pay

If a resident loses their job and stops paying the rent, you may have to resort to legal action to have them evicted. This process is time consuming and expensive. During this wasted time, you are still paying the mortgage, property taxes, HOA dues, and the ongoing operating expenses of the property. It can be financially exhausting.

Residents can abandon the property, vacate because of a divorce, legally break the lease when they are relocated due to military service, legally break the lease because of domestic violence or sometimes even death. Finding a new resident takes time and when you are not receiving any rental income – time means money.

Even the highest quality and best of residents experience unplanned life events and you can't predict when a tenant can't or won't pay. But with RPA, you can protect some of your much-needed rental income.

This program assists in paying for evictions and will release any additional funds not used in the eviction process toward rent payments. For example, if you have the RPA Gold and the eviction cost is $1,000 to remove the tenant, the additional $1,000 will be credited to you for lost rents.

We have three plans to choose from depending on your needs.

Rental Loss Coverages	RPA Bronze	RPA Silver	RPA Gold
Plan Monthly Cost	$ 5.00	$ 9.00	$ 17.00

HOME WARRANTY DISCLOSURE

In the effort to ensure we have the most current information about your home available please complete this form regarding any Home Warranty policies or other warranty items. In addition to this document we will need the following items provided to our office in order to honor any warranty items if/when the need arises-

- Home Warranty Contract (Required if applicable)
- Appliance Receipts and/or available warranty info
- If your provider does not allow third party online access to your warranty we may request your login info
- Roof, HVAC or other Invoices with warranty details
- All warranty documentation and/or registrations

Please note a Home Warranty is not the same as your homeowner or landlord insurance policy

Do you have a Home Warranty for your Rental Home? YES:  NO: _____

If you answered yes to the above question, please provide us further information and separately provide a copy of the contract:

Address of Home: 12345 Sample Street, City, TX 12345

Home Warranty Provider: Home Warranty Company (not insurance) Phone Number: 123-456-7890

Policy Number: 1234567890 Expiration Date: Jan 31, 1001

If there are any additional warranties in place for Appliances, HVAC, Roof or anything else please list them with all pertinent info-

Roof 1/1/01 w 5yr labor+25yr material from Sample Roofing, Fridge 1/1/01 1yr Lowes

THIS IS IMPORTANT INFO TO AVOID UNNECESSARY EXPENSE

Should you have any changes to any warranty items or contracts please notify us immediately, including renewal contracts.

It is the policy of Stone Oak Property Management to charge a Home Warranty Service Fee equal to the greater of $40.00 or 10.00% of the repair cost per service call for each repair incident. We must process a repair request through two entities – the warranty provider and their vendor(s). It has become very common that our staff has had to be on hold with a warranty provider for 45 minutes or longer just to process a warranty claim via phone, or make multiple calls to the provider or vendor(s) on a single claim through resolution. In addition to very little accountability on their part, we cannot adequately supervise any warranty vendor, and we incur increased liability from a vendor we do not have a relationship with.

EXCEPTIONS: Due to warranties not always being a timely option there may be situations where we have to circumvent them. Some examples are, but not limited to, emergencies like leaking pipes, extract water to prevent mold, HVAC issues with temps above 85 or below 40 degrees, etc. We will always try to utilize the warranty, however if deemed necessary we will contact you about alternate options to prevent code violations, damage to the property, or risk to the health and safety of the residents.

PLEASE NOTE: If any warranties are not disclosed, or without full documentation provided to Stone Oak, management is not obligated to pursue warranty claims. Any maintenance requests received without the required information for a warranty will be dispatched to a trusted vendor and handled according to standard maintenance protocols at the expense of the client.

PERSONAL PROPERTY ADDENDUM

Landlord understands and agrees that any personal property must be removed prior to management commencement. Any items left in the property will be disposed of at the landlord's expense. There is no guarantee that any items left in the home that are not physically attached will be returned when management terminates. Storage areas in the home cannot be used by the Landlord when the property is leased including locked areas. The lease gives tenants full access to the premises, and leaving personal items in a closet, shed, attic or other locations is not allowed while a property is being managed and occupied by a tenant. Some items are listed to protect you from potential liability.

Some examples of items that need to be removed if Landlord desires to retain them are below. This is NOT an all-inclusive list-

- Decorative mirrors (only leave fully mounted mirrors in bathrooms)
- Paintings, pictures or other hanging items
- Shower and Window Curtains and Rods (attached blinds are OK)
- Televisions
- Television Mounting Brackets
- Indoor or Outdoor Furniture
- Lawn ornaments and decor
- Bar-B-Que Grills
- Playground Equipment
- Paint
- Shelving that is not built in place
- Work benches even if built in place
- Shovels, Rakes, Brooms, Mops, etc
- Tools including items attached to work benches or other fixtures (also those used during any make ready work)
- Lawn maintenance equipment
- Spare flooring or other building materials
- Countertop Microwaves
- Spice racks
- Bathroom accessories
- Appliance Manuals
- Electronics including Cameras, Specialized Door Hardware, Alarm Systems and Components, Etc
- Other Documents and loose items

The only items that should be in the property when it is leased are the attached building materials and fixtures, and appliances that are being leased with the home. ALL OTHER ITEMS SHOULD BE REMOVED.

PLEASE NOTE: The purpose of this Addendum is to make sure our clients know there is no way for us to track personal items left at the home, and that if left behind, 99% of the time they will be gone by the end of the first lease. Some items disappear during the lease listing phase or before it even goes on the market. Anything that you want to keep should be removed from the home prior to listing. This may include appliances like a washer/dryer.

APPLIANCES: Owner understands and agrees that any appliances left in the home will be included in the lease, and must be maintained during the lease unless the tenant agrees otherwise. Maintained means repaired or replaced with an appliance with similar features. For example an fridge with an ice maker and water dispenser must be replaced with the same features if it cannot be repaired.

LANDLORD AGREES AND GIVES STONE OAK PROPERTY MANAGEMENT FULL AUTHORITY TO DISPOSE OF ANY ITEMS LEFT IN OR OUTSIDE THE PROPERTY NOT DEEMED TO BE BUILT INTO THE PROPERTY OR CONSIDERED A MAJOR APPLIANCE INCLUDED IN THE LEASE. ## GENERAL INFORMATION FOR LANDLORD REGARDING ASSISTANCE ANIMALS

USE OF THIS FORM BY PERSONS WHO ARE NOT MEMBERS OF THE TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, INC. IS NOT AUTHORIZED.
©Texas Association of REALTORS®, Inc. 2021

In the event you receive a reasonable accommodation request for an assistance animal, the following information may assist you in handling and evaluating such a request.

THE FAIR HOUSING ACT.

General. The federal Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in housing on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status and disability (handicap).

Exemptions. The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in most types of housing, but there are exemptions. In some circumstances, the Act exempts:

- Owner-occupied buildings with no more than four units. Rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four (4) families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his or her residence;
- Single-family housing sold or rented without the use of a broker. The sale or rental of any single-family house by an owner, provided the following conditions are met: (i) the owner does not own or have any interest in more than three single-family houses at any one time; (ii) the house is sold or rented without the use of a real estate broker, agent, or salesperson or the facilities of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings; and (iii) if the owner selling the house does not reside in it at the time of the sale or was not the most recent resident of the house prior to such sale, the exemption applies only to one such sale in any 24-month period.
- Housing operated by certain organizations and private clubs that limit occupancy to members. See 42 U.S.C. 3603, 3607 and 24 C.F.R. § 100.10 for more details.

Enforcement. At the federal level, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) administers and enforces the federal Fair Housing Act. The Fair Housing Act provides that if the state or city has adopted similar fair housing laws, fair housing complaints will be referred to the state or city for enforcement. At the state level, the Texas Workforce Commission, Civil Rights Division, administers and enforces the Texas Fair Housing Act, which is virtually identical to the federal act.

DEFINITIONS.

Assistance Animal. An assistance animal is an animal that works, provides assistance, or performs tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability, or provides emotional support that alleviates one or more identified symptoms or effects of a person's disability. An assistance animal is not considered a pet. Under the Fair Housing Act, assistance animals include service animals, which are always dogs, and emotional support animals. Emotional support animals can be any type of animal.

Disability. Under the Fair Housing Act, "disability" or "handicap" means a person with physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of a person's major life activities, a record (history) of the impairment, or being regarded as having the impairment.

Major Life Activities. "Major life activities" means functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION. Discrimination against a person with a disability includes refusing to make a reasonable accommodation in rules, policies, practices, or services, when

DS

such accommodations may be necessary to afford a person with a disability equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling.

If you prohibit pets in your rental property or impose other restrictions or conditions related to pets and other animals, a reasonable accommodation request may include a request to live with and use an assistance animal.

Generally, such a request must be granted, unless: (i) the person seeking to use and live with the animal does not have a disability; (ii) the person seeking to use and live with the animal does not have a disability-related need for the assistance animal; (iii) the request would impose an undue financial and administrative burden on you; (iv) the request would fundamentally alter the nature of your operations; (v) the specific assistance animal in question poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation; or (vi) the specific assistance animal in question would cause substantial physical damage to the property of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation. If you refuse a requested accommodation for one of these reasons, you should discuss with the person whether there is an alternative reasonable accommodation that would effectively address the person's disability-related needs.

REQUESTING ADDITIONAL INFORMATION. Once a reasonable accommodation request has been made, you may be able to ask for additional information; however, this depends on whether the person's disability or the disability-related need for the assistance animal is readily apparent or known.

- If the person's disability is obvious, or otherwise known to you, and if the need for the requested accommodation is also readily apparent and known, then you may not request any additional information about the person's disability or the need for the accommodation.
- If the person's disability is known or readily apparent, but the need for the accommodation is not readily apparent or known, you may request only information that is necessary to evaluate the disability-related need for the accommodation. For example, a licensed health care professional with personal knowledge of the individual may provide a note confirming a need for an animal. The health care professionals' services may be delivered remotely, including over the internet.
- If a disability is not obvious, you may request reliable disability-related information that: (i) is necessary to verify that the person meets the Fair Housing Act's definition of disability; (ii) describes the needed accommodation; and (iii) shows the relationship between the person's disability and the need for the requested accommodation.

Information a landlord can request as the basis for supporting a non-observable disability can include: a determination of disability from a governmental authority, the receipt of disability benefits or services (i.e., SSDI, Medicare, or SSI for a person under 65, veteran's benefits, etc.), eligibility for housing assistance or housing vouchers received because of disability; or information confirming disability from a health care professional. You may not ask an applicant or tenant to provide access to medical records or medical providers, or provide detailed or extensive information or documentation of a person's physical or mental impairments.

INTERNET CERTIFICATIONS. HUD states that websites which sell certificates, registrations, and licensing documents for assistance animals are not sufficient on their own to reliably establish that an individual has a disability-related need for an emotional support animal. Instead,

SAMPLE OWNER 1

HUD recommends that the documentation should include the patient's name, whether there is a professional relationship between the healthcare professional and the patient, and the type of animal(s) for which the reasonable accommodation is sought. The documentation should also include information addressing the requestor's disability: whether the patient has a physical or mental impairment, whether that impairment substantially limits at least one major life activity or major bodily function, and how the patient will be aided by the animal(s).

PET DEPOSITS OR OTHER PET FEES. Any required pet fees, like a pet deposit, may not be applied to assistance animals. A reasonable accommodation request for an assistance animal cannot be conditioned on the payment of such a fee. However, the person is responsible for any damage to the property caused by the assistance animal, excluding normal wear and tear, and all reasonable costs associated to repair the property, if this is your practice to assess tenants for any damage they cause.

UNIQUE ANIMALS. If the animal being considered is a dog, cat, small bird, rabbit, hamster, gerbil, other rodent, fish, turtle, or other small, domesticated animal that is traditionally kept in the home for pleasure rather than for commercial purposes, then the reasonable accommodation should be granted if the landlord has information confirming that there is a disability-related need for the animal.

However, if the animal is "unique", like a monkey or snake, then the tenant has a burden to demonstrate a disability-related therapeutic need for the specific animal or the specific type of animal. There may be reasons that require a unique animal such as opposable thumbs on a monkey or allergies to dogs. Landlords should consider the request and documentation provided.

BREED, SIZE, AND WEIGHT RESTRICTIONS. Breed, size, and weight restrictions do not apply to assistance animal. A decision that an assistance animal poses a direct threat of harm to others or would cause substantial physical damage to the property of others must be based on that animal's actual conduct and not simply on (i) fear about harm or damage an animal may cause or (ii) evidence of harm or damage other animals have caused.

INSURANCE POLICY. In some cases, an insurance policy may contain restrictions, conditions, or prohibitions on the types of animals or breeds in a property. If a request for an assistance animal in your property would violate your insurance policy, this may entitle you to refuse the request. If your insurance carrier would either cancel the insurance policy, substantially increase the costs of the insurance policy, or adversely change the policy terms because of the presence of a certain breed of dog or a certain animal, HUD will find that this imposes an undue financial and administrative burden. However, the HUD investigator will verify such a claim with the insurance company directly and consider whether comparable insurance, without the restriction, is available in the market.

Broker cannot give legal advice. In the event you need further information or wish to deny a request for an assistance animal, you should CONSULT AN ATTORNEY.
